JOBS for MICHIGAN'S GRADUATES

Potterville High School

a program of Capital Area Michigan Works!

April Talent Tour

Students completed "walking tours" at three local employers: Ranch Life Plastics, Dowding Industries, and Liquid Web. We would like to thank Michelle Cordano with the Capital Area Manufacturing Council and Andrea Ragan with the Capital Area IT Council for coordinating and attending these awesome tours with us!

JAG Career Development Conference

Nine Potterville JAG students competed in the 6th annual JAG Career Development Conference (CDC) in April. The event took place at the Eagle Eye Golf Club in Lansing.

Students competed in the following competitions: Chapter Marketing Event, Employability Skills, Public Speaking, Math Skills, JMG Bowl, and Creative Problem Solving. Additionally, students attended workshops on Entrepreneurship and Diversity. The highlight of the event was the inspirational keynote speaker, Manny Scott, an original "Freedom Writer."
